

Free Admission

@ River Building 2200,
Carleton University

NOV 6 & 7 2015

Japanese Film Festival

横
道
世
之
介

© 2013 "A Story of Yonosuke" Film Partners

Friday, November 6 at 6:30 P.M.

A Story of Yonosuke

In 1987, 18-year-old Yonosuke arrives in Tokyo from his hometown of Nagasaki to attend university. While juggling classes and extracurricular activities, he meets Shoko, the daughter of a company president. Based on the serialized newspaper novel by Yoshida Shuichi, a coming-of-age drama which interweaves the past and present to tell a story you won't soon forget. (2013/160 min/in Japanese with English subtitles)

© 2011 "The Floating Castle" Film Partners

Saturday, November 7 at 6:30 P.M.

The Floating Castle

Set in feudal Japan, against insurmountable odds, Narita Nagachika must lead a group of 500 men to combat a clan of 20,000 samurai in order to defend a floating fortress known as Oshi Castle. The true story of the one castle that Toyotomi Hideyoshi and his greatest general, Ishida Mitsunari, failed to conquer. (2011/145 min/in Japanese with English subtitles)

の
ぼ
う
の
城

Films to be preceded by introductions by Dr. Mitsuyo Wada-Marciano from Carleton University. Doors open at 6:00 P.M.. No reservation required. Seats are available on first-come –first-served basis.

For more information, please visit: www.ca.emb-japan.go.jp or email: infocul@ot.mofa.go.jp