

The 40th Japanese Film Festival

Sunday, December 11th

3 PM: Opening Reception
4 PM: Film Screening

Tuesday, December 13th

7 PM: Film Screening

Ottawa Art Gallery (50 Mackenzie King Bridge, Ottawa)
Free Admission

Short Animation Films by Tsuneo Goda

Mogu and Perol (8 min.) Sunday, December 11th

Komaneko, Home Alone (8min.) Tuesday, December 13th

Pop in Q

Sunday, December 11th

Before their graduation ceremony, five middle school girls are preoccupied with their respective everyday lives until they are sent to a fantasy world where they meet. They must now learn to work together to save the world through dance. (Directed by Naoki Miyahara, 2016, 95 min.)

(c) TOEI ANIMATION / 「POP IN Q」 Partners 2016

We Make Antiques!

Tuesday, December 13th

On his search for a big break, antique dealer Koike heads for Sakai, Osaka to find a treasure. There, he meets down-and-out potter Noda. After being duped by a prominent appraiser, the two collude to get rich by faking "Rikyu's lost tea bowl." (Directed by Masaharu Take, 2018 105 min.)

Come sing along in Japanese with Ice Qream!

Sunday, December 11th

Special Performance by J-pop Idol Group from Québec, Ice Qream (20 min.)

